No need to waste the extra 25 dollars when you can buy the ...By Derek Peterson Do NOT rent this book assuming that this will have a working iLrn code. It does come with a code, but it most likely already used. Rent the one that is around 15 dollars instead. No need to waste the extra 25 dollars when you can buy the code online anyways. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Overpriced piece of...By Joseph Bower These textbook, Spanish ones as a whole are so expensive. The book is not super helpful and seems to be a waste of my money. Screw the whole textbook industry these things are out of control. The whole higher education industry has become a business that takes advantage of poor struggling students. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good purchase By Shakira Took FOREVER to get this book. But in good condition. Bought for my class at college, not the greatest book but better than the textbook version

A que si! Enhanced Fourth Edition is designed to encourage critical thinking and help you express yourself in Spanish. The Enhanced Fourth edition gives you an opportunity for in-depth exploration of relevant contemporary issues and revolves around four main themes: Espacios: Publicos y privados, Encuentros y desencuentros, Patria Nacion: Acercamientos, and De aca para alla. Each thematic unit is now supported by an authentic short film with accompanying engaging activities to inspire creative thinking and conversation. The short films and related activities can be accessed through iLrnAdvance, the online digital solution that accompanies the A que si! program.

About the Author M Victoria Garcia Serrano (Conquista de la Sierra, Spain) studied Hispanic Philology-Linguistics at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid. She received her PhD in Contemporary Latin American Literature from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Her areas of research are literary theory and writing by Hispanic women authors. Cristina de la Torre was born in Cuba and moved to the United States as a child.
