From the Publisher
"Finding a job is just not that hard - if you know what to do!" So says Steve Hines, known in Atlanta as the "Job Guru." Mr. Hines is the author of numerous career books and articles, including Atlanta Jobs 2000, the best selling guide for finding employment in Atlanta. He is a frequent guest speaker at job search seminars, writes for local publications, and appears regularly on radio and television. Mr. Hines has more than 20 years experience in the Atlanta job market as the owner of Hines Recruiting Associates, a professional-level job placement service. Prior to that, he taught high school English and social studies. Through his books, seminars, and placement service, he has helped thousands of job seekers establish rewarding careers. Mr. Hines also volunteers his time to several local charities, including STEP, a non-profit agency that secures employment for disadvantaged Atlanta residents.
