He was fully engaged in applying for internships and jobs and although he was getting phone interviews, he wasn't receiving call backs. A gentle nudge to peruse the book was successful. He read it and used it to prepare for an in person interview that came up directly from the application process. He followed some of Steven's tips and the interviewers told him they were impressed with his background and his professional appearance and offered him the position on the spot! Common sense? Yes, but sometimes we need that third party reminder which is what Mr. Fies provides. Thank you, Mr. Fies for showing a new generation of job seekers what has worked for years! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
