Alvin J. Schexnider : Saving Black Colleges: Leading Change in a Complex Organization (Philanthropy and Education) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Saving Black Colleges: Leading Change in a Complex Organization (Philanthropy and Education):

Saving Black Colleges makes clear the challenges, opportunities, and prospects for change historically black colleges and universities now face. Schexnider, the former chancellor of Winston-Salem State University, details what he could and could not accomplish, examines how these issues affect other HBCUs, and outlines a practical way forward.

Praise to come. About the Author Alvin J. Schexnider is the president of Schexnider Associates, LLC. He previously served as the president of Thomas Nelson Community College and as the executive vice president and interim president of Norfolk State University.
