found the following review helpful. Love This BookBy Yvette D. PannellI bought 4 copies of this book as Mother's Day gifts for my aunts. They all loved the book so much I had to get one for myself. So many inspirational stories by some amazing black women. I want to buy more for my friends. I tried to find something similar for men for Father's Day and there was NOTHING out there like this. These ladies should put together a book like this for black men. They did such a great job with this one.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Gamegirl 64Loved it.

Powerful meditations are a source of strength, renewal, healing, and celebration as readers share their stories of parenting, marriage, the death of a family member, and relationships in general.

About the AuthorThe Rev. Dr. Suzan D. Johnson Cook is the founder and senior pastor of the Bronx Christian Fellowship. She is the first female New York City Police Department chaplain and the first female president of the ten-thousand-member Hampton University Minister's Conference, the largest gathering of African American clergy in the world.
