It covers the Southeastern Indians comprehensively, from the Paleoindian era up until about 1960. If you want to learn about Indians who lived and continue to live in the South, this is the place to go. Highlights: The Paleoindian, Archaic, Woodland, and Mississippian eras of Southeastern Indian Civilization. Exploration of the South by DeSoto through the Roanoke colony. Indians and various wars- in NC the Tuscarora War was especially important while WWII had a gigantic influence on Indians overall. The Green Corn Ceremony (most important religious ceremony). Deer and slave trades with the French, English, and Americans for guns, kettles and alcohol. Uktenas (Cherokee Snake monster with wings and antlers) and other creatures. Removal of the "Five Civilized Tribes" (Chickasaws, Cherokees, Creeks, Seminoles, and Choctaws). Indian food and medicine like the Three Sisters (Corn, beans and squash), Black Drink (Indian coffee which is easy to make), and the use of bear oil. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
